

Mischief

Date

1901

Primary Maker

Jacques-Emile Blanche

Medium

Oil on canvas

Dimensions

127 x 114.3 cm

Description

A young girl (Jeanne, see Object Number 294) is seated on the ground, and leaning on her right arm. She is dressed in a brown coat with puffy sleeves, a dark coloured skirt, a pink scarf, knotted to the front and a hat. To her left is a bundle tied in a red cloth. Standing behind her is a younger child wearing a dark blue overcoat and a hat. In front of Jeanne's right hand are a pear, a small red purse with black string and some coloured stones. The children appear to be inside a room, with a door on the right hand side in the background.

A young girl (Jeanne, see Object Number 294) is seated on the ground, and leaning on her right arm. She is dressed in a brown coat with puffy sleeves, a dark coloured skirt, a pink scarf, knotted to the front and a hat. To her left is a bundle tied in a red cloth. Standing behind her is a younger child wearing a dark blue overcoat and a hat. In front of Jeanne's right hand are a pear, a small red purse with black string and some coloured stones. The children appear to be inside a room, with a door on the right hand side in the background.