

Portrait of F W Higginbotham Esq.

Date

c.1943

Primary Maker

George Collie

Medium

Oil on panel

Dimensions

95.2 x 66 cm

Description

A three-quarter length portrait of a bearded man, F W Higginbotham, wearing a dark blue jacket, grey trousers, a dark grey tie, white shirt and a dark grey hat. He appears to be inside the cabin of a yacht, as there is a small porthole in the centre background. He is sitting on a seat attached to the wall. Frederick William Higginbotham (1874 - 1939) was an architect. In 1905 he was elected to Dublin City Council as a representative of Clontarf East.