Description

This is a relief print (wood engraving) on paper, depicting a scene showing a row of three Victorian style country houses. A wall runs the entire length of the picture in front of the houses. A woman sitting in the centre middle ground in front of the wall is talking to a second woman standing on the opposite side of the wall. There is a dog, in profile, standing slightly to the left of the woman sitting down and looking at two small children standing a little further along the wall to the left. Presented by Mrs. Louisa Clarke 1949.
