

Basic Detail Report

26.9 x 36.6 cm

Description

This watercolour shows a townscape of the fishing town of St. Ives. The tide is out and there is a boat in the centre lying on the sand close to the docks. There are two and three storey houses stretching in a curve into the middle distance. In the immediate foreground is a wooden ramp onto the sand. The colours in the painting are warm light browns, oranges and pale yellows.

Fishing Smack, St. Ives

Date

1909

Primary Maker

Richard Francis Caulfield Orpen

Medium

Watercolour and pencil on paper

Dimensions