Description

This is a two colour planographic print (lithograph) on paper, depicting a woman in water with reeds behind her, a full moon and mountain can be seen in the background.

Anne Yeats was a daughter of the poet William Butler

Yeats and a niece of the painter Jack B. Yeats and botanic artist Elizabeth Yeats. Born in Dublin, Anne Yeats trained in the Royal Hibernian Academy school from 1933-36 and worked as a stage designer with the Abbey before taking up painting full time in 1941; she had a touching naive expressionist style and was interested in representing domestic humanity.
