

Joseph Beuys at the Crawford Municipal

Gallery, Cork, 1974.

Date

2021

Primary Maker

Caroline Tisdall

Medium

Archival monoprint

Dimensions

47 × 71 cm

Description

Beuys lectured at the City Library and Art Gallery in Limerick on 25 September 1974 and at the Crawford Gallery, Cork, the next evening. While the blackboards from these events do not survive, stories have continued to circulate and both lectures have inspired artworks exploring their mythology, by artists such as Sean Lynch and Danny McCarthy.