

Basic Detail Report

---

Fog off the Mediterranean

Date

1901

Primary Maker

Henri Joseph Harpignies

Medium

Oil on canvas

Dimensions

64 × 80 cm

Description

Henri-Joseph Harpignies was a French landscape painter associated with the Barbizon school, which pursued realism in landscape painting. His landscapes are harmonious, like those of Jean-Baptiste-Camille Corot and Charles-Francois Daubigny who are also represented in the Hugh Lane Gallery collection.